++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A dry night but soon turning showery tomorrow.

This Evening and Tonight:
Daytime showers ease for most into the evening, leaving a dry night with the odd clear spell, the best of these in the east. Far southwestern areas may see the odd shower just before dawn. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Tuesday:
A fine and dry start for most, but scattered showers, heavy and possibly thundery at times, soon form and then persist throughout the day. Feeling mild, but with brisk winds. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Unsettled conditions, with sunshine and showers throughout, with heavy and possibly thundery outbreaks late on Wednesday and early Thursday. Warm enough in the sunshine and mostly frost-free.
